

You are invited to an education and law seminar:

“Responding to damaging social media behaviours”

Please join our panel of experts who will provide an authentic hypothetical scenario in relation to the difficulties surrounding attacks on staff via social media. The panel will draw on their relevant areas of expertise in both the education and legal sectors and dissect and discuss the administrative and legal issues that arise.

Audience members will have the opportunity to join the conversation and ask questions.

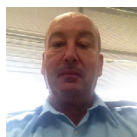

With panel members:

Julie Ross
Principal, Kogarah High School

Jacquie Seemann
Partner, Thomson Geer Lawyers

Sn Constable James Bottalico
Youth Liaison Officer, NSW Police

Facilitator:

Michael Waterhouse
Director, Legal Services
NSW Department of Education

Date: Tuesday, 24 March 2020
Time: 4:00pm - 6:30pm
(afternoon tea from 4:00pm)
Location: Sydney Grammar School,
College Street, Darlinghurst Cost: Free entry for ANZELA Members and students (on the production of their student card)
$20 for non-members RSVP: by 10 March 2020 to anzela.nswchapter@gmail.com

Please note:

Lawyers are eligible for 1.5 CPD points and educators are eligible for 1.5 hours of professional development